

A WIFE'S PRAYER

Father in Heaven, I humble myself in worship before you. To your holy name be glory, honor and praise forever. Praise your name for glorifying your Son, Jesus Christ, through whom I have entry into your presence. Praise to you, Jesus, for completing the work on earth that your Father gave you to do.

Father, I commit myself to love you with all my heart, mind, soul and strength. I purpose to live in obedience to you. Thank you for giving me and _____ to Jesus. Thank you for the words of life which you gave to Jesus who is our life. I believe and confess that you sent Jesus in the flesh to be the atoning sacrifice for my sins and not for mine only but also for the sins of _____.

Father, all I have is yours and I thank you for giving me all the benefits of being a joint-heir with Jesus. Thank you for giving me _____ as my husband. May you be glorified through our lives and marriage. As a daughter I ask you to protect me and _____ and our marriage by the power of your great name, that same name you gave to Jesus.

Father, I ask now that your joy and the joy of Jesus might be poured out into our hearts in full measure. Thank you for the promise of your word through Jesus that His joy may be in us. Make our joy complete.

Father, while _____ and I are in the world, I pray for the protection of your powerful name against all the influences and temptations of the Evil One. We are not of the world even as our Lord Jesus is not of the world. I choose to overcome our enemy, Satan, by confessing the name of Jesus, believing in the cleansing and healing power of His blood shed on the cross, and taking up my cross and dying to my own desires today. I claim all the sanctifying power of your Holy Spirit revealed at Pentecost that we might walk in your truth and be conformed to your image.

Father, I pray that _____ and I may be one as you and Jesus are one. Reside in our hearts that we might reflect the unity that is in heaven. May the world know through our individual lives and marriage that you have sent Jesus as the Savior of the world. Thank you for the glory that you have given us through our Lord Jesus Christ to make us one flesh.

Father, thank you for making yourself known to me and _____ through your Son, Jesus. Fill me with the same love you have for your Son, Jesus, that He might continually reside in my heart. I accept by faith that He is in me and our marriage now. Out of love for you I choose to minister respect and honor to _____ as my head just as the Church, the Bride of Jesus Christ, honors Him. Make the words of my mouth gentle and pure that _____ may be encouraged to exercise godly leadership.

Father, I pray all these things according to your will in the confidence that you have heard my petitions, and in the wonderful name of our Lord Jesus Christ who is able to keep us from falling and to present us before your glorious presence blameless and with great joy. Amen.
